

Huge 'Yes' On Annexation Petition

NORTHERN SAN MATEO COUNTY'S LEADING NEWSPAPER THE RECORD DALY CITY... Gateway to the Peninsula

TIMES

Bayshore City Residents Sign

Bayshore citizens gave an overwhelming vote of approval last week as 621 signers of a total of 789 petitioned to annex to Daly City. Seventeen petition circulators garnered more than 78 per cent of the voters. Only 25 per cent of the registered voters were required by law.

Cow Palace Board Vetoes Annex to DC

Cow Palace directors have issued a statement as being opposed to the proposed annexation of the Cow Palace property to Daly City.

The board, according to president Fred P. Cox, is satisfied with the present situation of the State of California property as being part of and representing both San Francisco and San Mateo counties. The board does not agree that the Cow Palace should be associated with one city, he said. A statement issued by the governing body of the Cow Palace said, in part: "The board of directors of the No. 1-A District Agricultural Association go on record as opposing annexation of any portion of the Cow Palace property situated in San Mateo County to the confines of Daly City, Brisbane, or any other city."

The city of Daly City must now give notice of intention of holding an election and must also set a protest hearing of property owners in the area proposed to be annexed.

A notice must be published twice. It is likely the hearing will be set for the last week in April. The law requires the hearing be continued once for 10 days before it may be closed.

If there are not sufficient protests to defeat the annexation, then the Daly City council must immediately call for an election. That election is to be from 34 to 75 days from the time the election is called.

A protest hearing will be probably set this May. The election in Bayshore City is probably due for July. There will be no election in Daly City.

Brisbane, which began proceedings several months ago to annex the industrial area of Bayshore City, won a legal battle last week in San Mateo County Superior Court when Superior Judge Dematties in Redwood City ruled against the Bayshore Sanitation District to block the annexation.

The area has been assessed valuation of more than $6 million.

Bayshore City residents complained annexation by Brisbane would strip them of tax revenues.

The Brisbane City Council voted Monday night in favor of an ordinance annexing land in the Visitation Valley which includes property owned by the Pacific Gas & Electric Co., Southern Pacific and Stauffer Chemical Co.

The annexation will become effective in 30 days upon the filing of papers with the Secretary of State.

Thumbs Down on Trailer Court

The Pacific Planning Commission Monday denied an application by Frank Maestri to build a trailer court after several citizens protested.

Maestri wants to develop a "mobile home park" in a 60 acre portion of land lying behind lands of the St. Peter's Church.

Residents said this was the best part of the valley and the trailer park would lower the value of the surrounding valley. The park would have accommodated 400 trailers.

City Raises Asked; Police Request Vetoed

A request that all new police recruits must have two years college or its equivalent in police training, failed to get the approval last week by the Daly City personnel board. The personnel board acts as an advisory board to the city manager and the city council.

The request was made by Police Chief Roland Petrochi and the city manager, Edward Frank.

The personnel board also recommended salary adjustments for the coming year. They recommended a 2 1/2 per cent raise for all employees, plus an additional 5 per cent raise for police and fire personnel.

Additional salary adjustments were asked for the building regulation department.

Also recommended was inclusion of survivors benefits in the city retirement plan, similar to those offered under Federal Social Security.

The board recommended that when a person retires, he will receive 25 per cent of his accumulated sick leave.

City-County Highway Plan Yes Vote Urged

Supervisor James Fitzgerald last week began beating the drums for approval of the $33,000,000 city-county highway program designed to improve cross-county "feeder" roads which feed into the main highways.

"Unless some immediate and positive action is taken to improve the mobility of our people, we are going to find ourselves stuck in the middle of a big and impossible traffic jam," he declared.

The plans, designed in its first phase to assist traffic needs until 1970, were outlined at a meeting of San Mateo County newspaper editors at Nick's Rockaway in Pacifica.

Fitzgerald declared that the "first and vital step" toward solving a straggling county traffic problem is successful passage of the $33,000,000 highway bond issue in June.

Cost estimate of the first phase of the program for Daly City is $2,380,000. The estimate for South San Francisco is $3,218,000. Pacifica estimate is $1,780,000.

The cost of this program would require 11.8 cents per $100 assessed valuation. At their highest point, taxes necessary for bond interest would cost the average homeowner 44 cents a month, according to Fitzgerald.

The following highway plan cost estimates were prepared by the George S. Noffs Engineering Company of Palo Alto for Daly City:

Alameda Boulevard
Lake Merced boulevard to Park Plaza drive—A four-lane structure will be constructed on existing right-of-way.

South Mayfair Avenue
will be a frontage road. Right-of-way acquisition necessary for ramps and street connections: 0.5 miles, four lanes, $1,710,000 cost.

Sullivan Avenue
Eastmoor Avenue to Southgate Avenue: A street width of 40 feet curb to curb will be constructed parallel to the new Junipero Serra Freeway. Nominal right-of-way required is 0.8 miles, 2 lanes, $440,000 cost.

Southgate Avenue
Cerro Drive to Junipero Serra Blvd. A street will be constructed to connect Southgate Avenue with the relocation of Chinese Cemetery Road, 0.4 miles, 4 lanes, $230,000, cost for a total of $2,380,000.

'Block Busting' Talk Slated at Merced Heights

Housing, and some of the problems which go into providing this essential of living, will be the subject of a panel discussion at the meeting of the Merced Heights Neighborhood Association on Monday, April 1 at 8 p. m., at Jose Ortega school, 400 Sargent street.

Frank Quinn, executive director of the Council for Civic Unity, will discuss "block busting" and panic selling. This subject is of special interest to residents of Merced Heights who experienced these problems in the past.

The point of view of the realtor will be presented by Frank McGovern, McGovern, an experienced real estate broker and member of the San Francisco Real Estate Board, is well qualified to discuss this complex question.

Percy Moore, health fund administrator of the ILWU, will be the third member of the panel. He will discuss the housing needs of a good community.

The topic of the evening should make for a lively panel discussion. With the eyes of the nation on California, watching the outcome of the Berkeley ordinance, and the Fair Housing Bill in the California legislature, the subject is also timely.

Merced Heights is an area which has had experience in the problems to be faced. In a little more than ten years it went from all white to approximately 80 per cent Negro. The residents are now working together to stabilize their neighborhood and maintain its first residential character.

Contrary to popular opinion, property values have increased rather than decreased. The meeting is open to the public.

Air Force Colonel to Address Toastmasters

Daly City Toastmasters, at 7 a. m. Thursday, will hear Lieut. Col. Frank J. McCarthy talk on the "Art of Communicating." The meeting will be held in the Westlake Library.

A retired Air Force lieutenant colonel, McCarthy was graduated from the University of San Francisco in 1940 with a major in political science. During World War II, he served with the Eighth Air Force in England as a command pilot flying B-24 bombers.

Attorney Sues S. S. F. Police

A former South San Francisco and Millbrae city attorney who was recently convicted of a drunk driving charge in Northern District Municipal court, but acquitted of an assault and battery charge has filed a $250,000 damage claim against the city of South San Francisco as the result of the latter charge.

The attorney, Richard P. Lyons, named arresting officers Gary D. Paoli and Robert R. Moont, Lt. Allen Klemme and Police Chief John Fabbri in the claim.

MAJOR CONTEST FOR COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION SEATS

Five positions on the seven-member county board of education are up for grabs in the county-wide school elections April 16.

This is the first major contested election since the board became an effective lay group in 1956.

The incumbents have all filed for re-election. They are Virginia J. King in Trustees Area No. 3 (South San Francisco), Nora S. Evans in Area No. 4 (San Mateo), Thomas Needham in Area No. 5 (Burlingame, Hillsborough, Millbrae and San Bruno), Florence M. Cadigan in Area No. 6 (Belmont, Redwood City, and San Carlos) and Perry E. West in Area No. 7 (Woodside, Las Lomas, Menlo Park, Portola Valley and Ravenswood).

A pro-Rafferty slate of candidates for the county board of education filed nomination papers.

One of the candidates, David H. Keyston of Hillsborough, a businessman and financier, will run against Needham.

Dr. Frank Arnold of Portola Valley, a former high school principal and now assistant professor of mechanical engineering at Stanford University, will run for West's position.

Mrs. Edythe Bielenberg, president of the McKinley school PTA in Redwood City, will be a candidate against Mrs. Cadigan.

One of the key issues at stake is the charter amendment proposal which aims to make the County Superintendent of Schools an appointive office.

This amendment will be on the April 16 ballot.

Free chest X-rays will be offered again in Daly City tomorrow (Thursday, March 21) and Friday. The Christmas Seal Chestmobile of the San Mateo County TB Association will be parked at the Cala Food Market, No. 1 Hillside Blvd. Hours will be noon to 1:30 p. m. and from 2 to 6 p. m.

The mobile unit will return to the northern part of the county next month, with stops scheduled for South San Francisco on April 8 and 9 and San Bruno on April 10 and 11.

Demos to Meet Tonight in Colma

The regular meeting of the Daly City-Colma Democratic Club will be on Wednesday, March 20, at Garden Village School, 208 Garden Lane, Broadmoor, Colma, commencing at 8 p. m.

The club has arranged to show a movie on precinct organization. Public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

UNDERCOVER WORK CATCHES SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO THIEVES

Five teenagers who admitted to burglarizing 40 homes were arrested last week in South San Francisco.

With two additional arrests being anticipated, Police Chief John Fabbri credited the apprehension of the juveniles to the exceptionally well conducted undercover work of the juvenile officer and two inspectors.

The investigation was initiated two weeks ago when reports of thefts began flooding the South City police department. Conversation with students at El Camino High School informed officers that a small group of pupils were "the best dressed boys in school." There was some discrepancy noted between the dress of these students and financial situations evidenced at their homes.

The boys, all 16 and all students at El Camino, stated that they always broke a window to gain entrance, and always took money and jewelry—never food, liquor, or clothing. All homes robbed were entered between 4 and 11 p. m. They admitted to robbing 23 homes in South City, six in San Bruno, one in both Burlingame and Millbrae.

In Westlake, two homes were broken into, the youths admitting to taking $100 in cash from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Plimira Curto at 198 Northgate Avenue.

They also admitted to entering the home of William Conwell at 98 Ashland on the same night, March 3.

South City police stated that the amount stolen in the area under their jurisdiction could be worth up to $2,500, adding that some of the stolen property was recovered.

Sanitary District Administrator Job Proposed

The possibility of hiring a full-time administrator for the North County sanitation district was announced today by County Supervisor James Fitzgerald.

The announcement was made in lieu of the impending retirement of C. O. White, sanitary district engineer.

Fitzgerald said a full-time administrator was needed because of increased sanitary district responsibilities caused by the proposed development of the Christen Ranch, 90th street assessment district sewer lines in Broadmoor-Daly City, Westborough sewer lines usage, proposed lines for Mary's Help Hospital and installation of new treatment plant at Mussel Rock.

New Type Faces Installed by Newspaper

Five new type sizes and faces make their appearance this week in the Westlake Times, and The Record, according to Publisher James N. Harrah.

Added to the large selection already available are a 10 point Spartan Heavy, 24 point Spartan Black condensed, 24 point Vogue Bold, 24 point Vogue Extra Bold and 18 point Spartan Heavy. Two of the faces replace older types and three are new.

In order to accommodate the new types, one of the two Linotypes had to be remodeled, which will give greater flexibility in composition of advertising. The new acquisitions are part of a long-range plan of modernizing the Times and Record plant, said Harrah.

Delicate Beauty Of Dogwood Popular Spring Flower

In the garden world, few sights are more enchanting than a dogwood in bloom. The delicate, almost fragile appearance of this fine shrub has spring written all over it and more the pity that Californians haven't made wider use of it than they have.

Especially here in Northern California, the dogwood deserves more attention than it seems to get. Our seasons here are more sharply defined, our winters colder, and this is what a dogwood likes, according to the California Association of Nurserymen.

We speak not of the native dogwood which graces our foothills in the Mother Lode and Yosemite. These are better left in their native habitat, unless you are a specialist in natives. Rather, we speak of the dogwoods of eastern gardens, some fine examples of which are to be found in all central and northern counties.

These dogwoods have an easily recognized pattern of growth, which is rigidly horizontal. They seem unbending, but with the unbending grace which a talented gardener achieves by use of his pruning shears. The flowers are not actually flowers, but bracts which cover the barren branches in a sudden burst of color each spring.

In spring's cycle of bloom, dogwoods hit their peak in March after the flowering plums, deciduous magnolias and flowering crabapples have had their days. Plant them, therefore, where these others which have already come into leaf won't hide the dogwood's beauty with their foliage.

The two varieties which local nurserymen offer are the White Flowering Dogwood and the Pink Flowering Dogwood, later of which is most popular. Both will make stars.

Woman Rescued At Gate Span

A Daly City woman, attired in a white jumpsuit and black sweater, tried to commit suicide last Wednesday by jumping over the Golden Gate Bridge.

Two workmen grabbed her wrists and pulled her to safety. Margaret Juanita Beljar, 31 and dependent, had written a farewell note, called a cab at the Westlake Shopping Center and started for the bridge after the cabbie left her off at the Round House restaurant.

As she climbed the rail, workmen Marty Siem and Bud Millins ran to the spot. She was sitting on a narrow beam, three feet below the rail, 235 feet above the water. A third workman, Dick Seward, helped lift the woman off the beam as highway patrolman Ray Kirner pulled up in his patrol car. The woman was taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Child Beater Found Guilty

Jimmie Wayne Watson, 23, a former Marine Corps corporal, was sentenced to five years to life in State prison March 18 for beating his 2-year-old stepson to death.

Superior Judge Louis B. Demattels of San Mateo County found Watson guilty of second degree murder. Watson admitted slugging little Jack Abbott Jr. in their South San Francisco home last October 13 because the child "dirtied his pants."

Bike Safety Program at M. P. Brown

The annual bicycle safety program sponsored by the M. Pauline Brown PTA in conjunction with the Daly City and Broadmoor police departments will be held Saturday, March 23, from 9:30 a.m. to noon at the M. Pauline Brown School, 805 Eastmoor avenue, near St. Francis Heights.

The safety program will include the opportunities in showing abilities in handling bicycles through a skill course which the Boy Scouts from Troop 129 and Troop 259 of Daly City will observe.

Registration of bicycles will be handled by the Daly City and Broadmoor police departments. The cost of registration is 50 cents per bike. This registration is valid for the life of the bike.

Man Plans to Eat Vultures

We've all heard about vultures eating people, but when people start eating vultures, that's news.

Near Blythe, Calif., according to the National Automobile Club, a game warden stopped a man for having a turkey vulture in his possession. What amazed the warden wasn't that the man had shot this protected species but that he had plucked it, cleaned it, and was taking it home to cook.

The man didn't know what kind of a bird it was. All he knew was that it was a big one, a fat one, and looked delicious enough to eat.

Plant Your Garden For Year-Round Color

Any California gardener who dedicates himself to the goal can have color the year around in his garden. Not always the lush color of spring and summer, to be sure, but color nonetheless and more often plentiful than not.

There are many tools by which this 12-month succession of bloom can be achieved. You can make use of bulbs through at least nine months of the year; annuals through all twelve. And there are shrubs, vines and perennials to lend permanence, some of them near ever blooming themselves in mild winter near the coast.

The California Association of Nurserymen suggests that you take the seasons one by one, starting with spring, and see how year-round bloom can become a reality in your garden.

Right now, for instance, you can find quick color in the form of camellias and azaleas, two standbys of the spring garden in all parts of the state. Both are easily transplanted in full bloom from nursery containers. Right now, also, you will find blooming shrubs of Star Magnolia, the white canopy of which combines beautifully with the vividly colored azaleas.

Look further. The exotic Bird of Paradise is full of color.

or this month and a star attraction where it's adapted. Check your local nurseryman about this. Pink India Hawthorn is another color bearer which will give you color from the first day you plant it. Dogwood will soon be in bloom and by setting it out now, you can take full advantage of its lovely spring show.

Plant now for future springs: Flowering fruit trees, Sauter Magnolia, acacias and such vines as the evergreen Armand Clematis or a Wisteria. Then mark your calendar for next October so you won't forget to plant those spring-flowering bulbs which can brighten the season more than anything else.

Annual and perennial bedding plants should have gone in before this for spring bloom, but if you hurry, you will get color from some of them before the calendar turns to summer.

Pacifica Woman Suffers Shock in Airport Blast

Three Peninsula residents were injured in a bomb blast Monday morning at San Francisco International Airport. Rushed to Peninsula hospital were: Robert Kingman, 42, Brisbane; David Balbow, Redwood City and Mrs. Helen Williams, 248 Lauren avenue, Pacifica.

The explosion occurred at 8:25 a.m. when a parcel post package believed from Saigon exploded at the incoming mail center at the airport.

The explosion blew out 40 windows in the south side of the building and scattered debris and paper about a 30 foot area. Kingman, who suffered the most injuries, was treated for a lacerated left finger and wrist. Mrs. Williams suffered shock. Six other employees suffered minor ear damage.

The 11 western states account for 15 per cent of the nation's employed persons.

Ram's Tony Giamonna Named NPL 'Coach of the Year'

Tony Giamonna, who coached the Westmoor Rams to their first NPL basketball championship this year, was selected the Coach of the Year by North Peninsula sports-writers this week. Only two of the Ram's starting five had any varsity experience at the season's start, yet they compiled a regular season record of 12 and 7.

With the opening of league competition Giamonna's team had felled, winning nine out of ten contests, then securing a spot in the Peninsula Basketball tournament and surprising everybody when they got there. Eventual winners St. Elizabeth was led by a 6-6 center that dwarfed the entire Ram team, while the Mustangs' record overshadowed Giamonna's efforts. On paper Giamonna's five, didn't belong on the same court.

On paper, St. Elizabeth ran for its life to beat a much smaller team. So did Camden, who was almost as big, and just as impressive. Lacking a super star, Giamonna built a solid team that evolved into an extremely smooth unit. Giamonna credited the success of this year's Ram five to a consistent team effort. Giamonna, a native of Grand Rapids, Michigan, began his career in physical education on receiving a scholarship to Michigan State, playing both football and basketball there, reaching the varsity level by his sophomore year before a severe knee injury cut short his collegiate athletic career.

Coming to San Jose State in 1949, Giamonna received his degree in Physical Education in 1951, then became immediately involved with Peninsula athletics, being appointed to the Jefferson High School staff the next year.

Giamonna moved to Westmoor when the school opened in 1956, and has coached teams there since. In addition to his duties as varsity coach, Giamonna also tutored the C team, which won the NPL championship this year with an unblemished 10-0 record.

With all Westmoor basketball teams winning or sharing the League crown this year, it isn't an unfair presumption to assume that Giamonna will not find his coaching talents hidden in the next few years.

Coch Giamonna now resides in St. Francis Heights with his wife Ruth and two children, a son, Tony, aged seven, and a daughter, Virginia, aged 13.

Sail Regatta To Be Hosted By Sea Scouts

The annual Old Salt Regatta will be held at Coyote Point Yacht Harbor, San Mateo, April 26, 27, and 28. Sea Scouts of San Mateo Boy Scout Council will be host for the affair. Outstanding ships from the Bay Area and as far south as San Luis Obispo and Santa Cruz will be in attendance.

The public is invited to observe approximately 300 Sea Scouts compete in Sea Scouting skills such as drill, sail boat and canoe handling, boat pulling, knot tying and obstacle course.

The Old Salt Regatta Committee consists of Messrs L. Ashley, Chairman; R. L. Hana, Chairman of the Advisory Committee for Sea Scouting; A. Paulus, Scout Executive; T. Chapman, Secretary; W. Culp, Publicity; R. Grand, Scoring; B. Moulder, Judging; A. Cameron, Awards; J. Allamano, Health and Safety; W. Havens, Moorings; P. Brauner, Physical Equipment; R. Forest, Campsites; and H. Hoshin, Religious Services.

Sea Scout Units assisting the committee are Belmont, Communications and Music for Religious Services; San Bruno, Watches; Redwood City, Ceremonies; and Burlingame, Dance.

SF State Nipped, Out of NCAA Coast Elms

The glories of the Victor came to close and yet were so far from the grasp of the 1962-63 San Francisco State College basketball team during the past weekend.

Head Coach Paul Rundell and his Far Western Conference championship basketball team were just five points shy of possibly heading into the final stanza of the NCAA college division championships to be held this weekend in Evansville, Ind.

The Gators suffered two heart-breaking setbacks at the hands of Chapman College (53-50) and U. C. Santa Barbara (58-56) at the Eighth District NCAA regionals in Fresno. The host team, Fresno Bulldogs came out on top of the four-team cage fest and will represent the Pacific Coast at Evansville.

It was the amazing free throw shooting of forward Brad Duggan (12 fta/12 ftn) that kept the Gators in the Chapman contest. The Bay Area players did not score a field goal for 14 minutes (last five minutes of the first half, 9:01 of the second half). This scoring failure finally proved to be the downfall of the Gators' hopes for a victory, although they did tie the score at 42-42 with 5:06 remaining in the contest.

The second night, against U. C. Santa Barbara, was without question the best "fan" contest of the tourney. Rundell's cagers were down by a 45-30 midway in the second period. Suddenly, as if "lightning" had struck the Fresno gymnasium the Gators came roaring back and came within two points of upsetting the Gauchos.

It was the shooting of Duggan and guard Mike Carson with 18 points that had the fans cheering and screaming. Reserve guard Terry Stegner came off the bench to give added emphasis to the Gator drive as he hit 4-4 on the free throw line.

Cypress Hills Women Hold Rainy Match

In spite of the rain and sleet, Mrs. Adam Proctor won first in Class A with a score of 46-10 3/4-35 1/2; second, Mrs. Charles Switzer, 46-10-36; then Mrs. Kenneth Roberts, 45-8-37. ### Coed Volleyball Tourney Due for Easter Vacation

Plans are under way for the first annual high school coed volleyball tournament to be sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department during the Easter Vacation period.

Open to all high school students attending Westmoor and Jefferson or living in Daly City/Colma, the tournament is set for Monday and Tuesday in both Westmoor and War Memorial gyms with the final two nights slated for only the latter facility. The Hi Fi Teen Club sponsored by the Recreation Department is planning a dance immediately following the championship game on Thursday evening.

Playing teams will be composed of six players with three boys and three girls on a court at one time. Rosters will be limited to ten players each. The first two nights of the tournament will be round robin play with all teams competing on both nights. Wednesday night will be a single elimination tournament for the top team in each round robin section. As mentioned, the championship game is tentatively scheduled for Thursday evening.

Complete details regarding rosters, playing rules, fees, trophies and awards, a n d tournament organization will be distributed at both local high schools and to all high school youth groups in the community. This tournament is another program sponsored by the Recreation Department in its continual expanding program to meet the needs and recreational interests of the community's high school youth.

Ram Golfers Win; Take S. I., 21-6, And Oceana, 13-8

The Westmoor Rams golf team has entered two matches and met with success as they whipped Saint Ignatius 21-6 and beat Oceana 13-8 in the first league match of the year. Against the city team Dennis Mori of the Rams shot the best round of the day, carding a 78. In the Oceana match the lowest round, 75, was recorded by Movello of the losers.

The Ram squad is composed of the following boys, all of whom are veterans of last year's team: Jim Fair, Dennis Mori, Rich Palzo, Tony Bento, Ron Johnson, and Mike Harrigan. The top five members of the team all shoot in the high 70's.

Stockton was originally called Tuleburg.

RAMS LOSE BY FEW SECONDS; JEFES, S. S. F. DOMINATE FIELD

Terra Nova unleashed a "full stable" of sprinters and out-distanced everybody at the NPL Relays held at the Westmoor track last Friday. The gap was a minute one, however, as Westmoor's speedsters chased the Tigers down to the wire; the last race of the day deciding the meet. Jefferson and the Warriors, meanwhile, displayed power in the field events. The Indians also ruled the B's competition and took second in the C bracket, finishing fourth behind South City on the Varsity level.

The league relays gave everyone a chance to discover both the depth and the outstanding members of all six of the NPL track squads. Nobody, it seems, is going to whip Terra Nova in the dashes, except maybe Westmoor. Nobody is going to take Jefferson in the broad jump, or in the high jump, except maybe Westmoor, or South City. And South City, Westmoor and Terra Nova are all going to collide in mid air in the pole vault.

In short, the Relays proved that this year's track season will be well fought, with several teams hoping, with good reason, to finish high in the standings. The Relays also proved that, right now, Terra Nova is loaded.

In the 280 high hurdle shuttle relay Terra Nova surprised just about everyone, as they took the top ranked Ram Quartet by two-tenths of a second, with a 39.4 clocking. Terra Nova also took the two mile relay with a 9:06.7 mark; the mile relay with a time of 3:37.1; the 440 yard relay in 45.4; and the 880 relay in the time of 1:34.2. Westmoor passed out of the zone in this last event, and was thereby disqualified.

In the rest of these relays, however, the Rams finished second to the Tigers, losing the 440 relay by four tenths of a second, the mile relay by six tenths, and the highs by two tenths of a second. Bob Weydemuller, Mike Staley, Fred Mason, and Don Monjure, all from Terra Nova, are all sprinters in the low to mid 10 second bracket.

South City and Jefferson appeared to have things pretty much their own way in the field events with the Jeffs winning the Discus relay with 393 feet, and taking the broad jump relay with 57 feet, 53.4 inches. The Warriors nipped the Rams in the high jump by three inches, soaring a total of 15 feet and eight inches. South City topped the Tigers in the Shot totals with a 136 feet, nine inch mark. Westmoor broke their hold on the field events by taking the pole vault with a 29 1/2 feet effort, beating SSF and Terra Nova, which took third.

The final scores of the NPL Relays were: Terra Nova, 59; Westmoor, 51; SSF, 46; Jefferson, 34; Oceana and El Camino, 5.

Jefferson, whose varsity has already won two practice meets, topping Mills 80-29 and Terra Linda 76-13, didn't enter all the relays. They walked off with the B's honors, beating Westmoor by 13 points, 57-44. Terra Nova, Oceana, El Camino, SSF followed with 36, 29, 14, and 6 points respectively. Oceana's B pole vaulters turned in a surprise of the meet, equalling the Rams varsity effort of 29 and 1/2 feet.

The C's scoring ran Westmoor 50 1/3, Jefferson 42, Terra Nova 36 -7/3, Oceana 20 1/3, South San Francisco 14, and El Camino 2 points.

Summer Session Expanded at SM

Trustees of the San Mateo Junior College district gave approval this week of the 1963 summer session at the College of San Mateo, with planning for 150 course sections and anticipated enrollment of 4,000 students.

As detailed by Superintendent Julio L. Bortolazzo, the 1963 session will be even larger and more comprehensive than the expanded 1962 offerings, which drew an enrollment of 3,600 students in 109 courses and sections.

The superintendent emphasized the growth of the summer program by citing the 1961 figures, when only 700 students were enrolled for 25 courses.

Based on the experience of previous years, the 1963 plan calls for emphasis on transfer courses, plus additions for enrichment of the program. As now outlined, there will be 48 sections offered in social science; 29 in English, speech and foreign language; 21 in business; 13 in science; 10 in mathematics, and course sections in creative arts, education and vocational guidance, physical education, and vocational programs.

The student leader, Jeff Jones, won a scholarship and

Junior Teen Clubs Close Member Drives

Selection of club names, announcement of executive council members and the closing of the initial membership drive were the featured attractions at last Friday's meeting of the three junior teen clubs formed west of Junipero Serra Blvd. These three junior teen clubs organized and directed under the auspices of the Daly City Recreation Department have just completed a series of four organizational meetings climaxed by the above mentioned items.

Each group of newly appointed executive council members will elect a chairman, vice-chairman, secretary and treasurer as formal officers of the club and will establish a permanent meeting time at which to discuss and plan all club activities and operations. The first meeting for each council will be held this Friday evening at the Westlake Park clubhouse followed by a party and dance for all teen councils.

The following is a list of each club, its name, advisors, meeting site, number of active members and names of its executive council:

Westlake Swingers—Westlake Park Clubhouse; John Williams and Jan Schultz, 66 members.

Roof Raisers—Ben Franklin School; Jim Chandler and Bonnie Johnston; 98 members.

Telstars—Abraham Lincoln School; Ron Lavaco, Mardi Meyers and Ron Shoemaker; 224 members.

The route first recommended by a board of engineers for a bridge between San Francisco and the East Bay was from Rincon Hill in San Francisco to Alameda.

The trophy winning delegation consisted of Sue Mass, Bob Bridges, Sue Albrook, John Glasgow and Zaida Bronstein. Judy Bretz and Jerry Tognetti were reporters.

Their representation of Algeria was judged by the faculty of the University of California. Judging was based on preparation, knowledge of the country's position, speech, and organizational and persuasive abilities.

"This is an example where the South San Francisco High School participated in and won an academic contest with schools representing the entire northern part of California," commented George Hurley, co-sponsor. Hurley also had special praise for Bob Bridges, head delegate, for his fine exhibition of leadership and organization.

"All of the credit goes to the students. They did the work," humbly stated Miss Charlene Smith, co-sponsor of the Model United Nations Club. The South San Francisco High School club has been researching since last October.

A highlight of their research was when the delegation interviewed the San Francisco consulate general of France. They discussed the relationship between France and Algeria and the unique problems of new nations.

Last year, the South San Francisco High School delegation received a second-place major-power trophy. The sponsor emphasized that the delegation improved its standings over last year's performance in that this year it won a sixth place honor even though it represented a minor U. N. power.

SSF Wins Honors At Model UN

For the second consecutive year, South San Francisco High School returned with high honors from the annual Model United Nations held on March 1 and 2 at the Berkeley campus of the University of California. The delegation received sixth place out of 110 delegations representing 82 high school throughout northern California.

Club Starts on Seat Belt Drive

"Safety first" is the motto of Westlake's Auto Safety Club members who are now sponsoring the second annual Seat Belt Drive. Installation services are free with every purchase of a belt. Belts sell at $7.50 each.

The drive began Monday, March 11, and will end Friday, March 22. Senior Bob Tarezy, club president, comments on the drive by saying, "Progress so far is successful, and we hope it continues this way." People interested in the drive should contact any of the club members or Mr. George Christensen, club advisor.

To raise money for the Auto Safety Club's annual dinner and to bolster the club treasury is the purpose of the program. It is assumed by members that the Seat Belt Drive will be an annual project of the club.

Easter Motif for S.S.F. Fashion Show

"Color for Easter" will be the theme for a fashion show to be presented by the Home Economics Department and PTA of South San Francisco High School. It will take place at 3 p.m. on April 4 in the school cafeteria and will be open to the public.

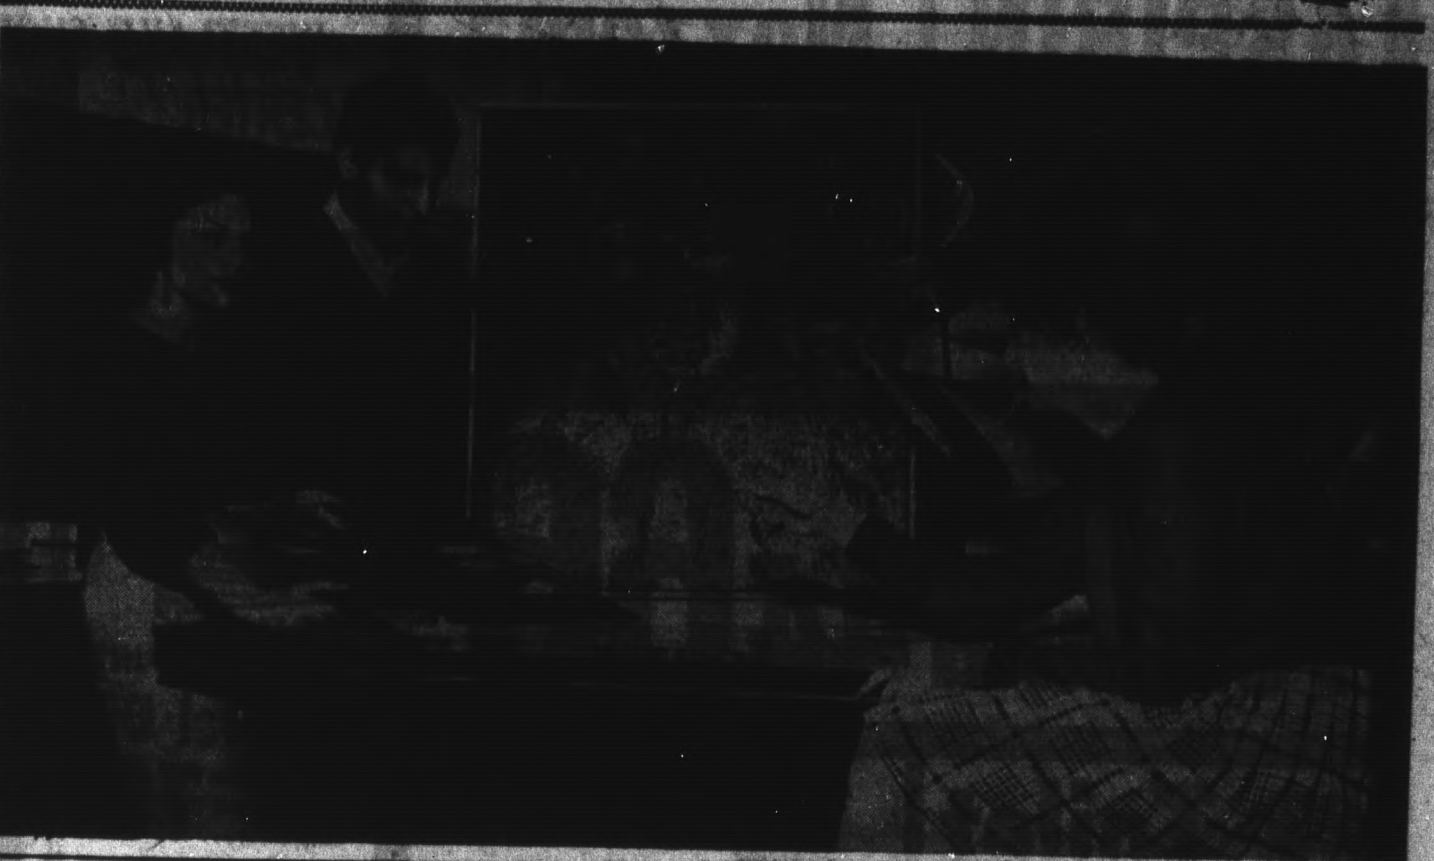

It is the wish of the committee that many students and parents will take this opportunity to view this show. There will be no admission charge.

Girls from the home making classes will be selected to model by Mrs. Anita Banning, head of the Home Economics Department. They will model garments they have made themselves.

The PTA will serve a tea. Mrs. Charles Davis and Mrs. Joseph Cooper will assist at the tea table.

Decorations and posters for the event are being made by the Future Homemakers of America.

Eighty-one youth representing the seven senior and junior high school teen clubs sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department are planning to attend the annual workshop of the Northern California Youth Council scheduled this year for Saturday, March 23, at Enchanted High School in Alameda from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Theme of the workshop will be "NCYC — Keys to Leadership" and will feature as keynote speaker the Very Rev. Monsignor John Cummins. All delegates attending will have an opportunity to participate in four discussion groups based on the theme. Morning discussion groups will be concerned with the principles, purpose and goals of the NCYC as it relates to the past, present and to the proposed new constitution.

The afternoon sessions will be devoted to assisting teen delegates with methods of improving their local teen club programs. The workshop will conclude with a dinner and dance.

Judith Reed, Co Co Murrish, Dave Vogt and Toni Nemis, all members of the Hi Fi Teen Club will be serving as discussion leaders at the workshop. The first two mentioned will take part in the morning session devoted to the future development of NCYC as related to the revised constitution, while the latter two will be leading sessions in the afternoon program swapshop.

Local delegates to this workshop are all members of their teen club's executive council and will be accompanied by their advisors to this program. Special arrangements are being made to travel by school bus and according to present registration figures, the Daly City group will be the third largest delegation, placing behind the Oakland and Hayward groups.

Mothers, Daughters Invade Boys' Gym

The Westlake High School boys' gym was filled with feminine squeals last Wednesday as the Girls' Athletic Association held its annual Mother-Daughter Fun Night.

Mothers were first entertained by the dance class which presented various projects they have worked on this semester. "The Dance in the Gym" from "Westside Story" was appropriately presented by Carol Benton, Connie Barone, Nancy Schmutz, and Lori Azarello.

Solo to "Twelve O'Clock" by Marie Misuraca was followed by a dance to "Struttin' to Maria," performed by Joan Burkard, Priscilla Cody, Bonnie Farolala, Dorothy Gatchel, and Kathy Sushkoff. To conclude the evening's dance performances the complete

A time of rest was given the weary athletes when they observed true trampoline techniques, demonstrated by W.H.S. graduate Gary Rivero. While enjoying the coffee and cookies served following activity, one mother commented, "This should happen more often."

200 Attend Terra Nova Prom

The people who helped to make the Prom a success were: Jim Carr, general chairman; tickets, Larry Garrett and Joe Higgins; decorations, Linda Recabaren; and refreshments, Tanya Arcouette.

On Friday, March 8, the French Club went to the Larkin Theater in San Francisco to see the new movie, "Sundays and Cybele." The group was chaperoned by the French teacher, Mr. Martin.

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

Have you often wished that you could help nations to know each other better but felt that you were only one small person. You can help right here in your own community. The American Field Service is looking for a host family to take a foreign student into their home next fall. The family who wish to take such a student must have either a daughter or son attending Westmoor, preferably in the junior or senior year.

Westmoor had their first foreign student this year, Helena Frisell, brought here through the efforts of the local chapter of the American Field Service. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wagner were the host family for the charming blond student from Stockholm, Sweden. It has been a most rewarding experience for the young student as well as her Westmoor classmates who have acquired first hand knowledge of Sweden and her young people.

If you are interested in serving as a host family for a foreign student next fall telephone Mrs. Edward Raymond (PL 6-3171) or Westmoor High School for more information.

One of the most difficult jobs to fill in community organizations is publicity chairman because the job requires a specialized knowledge and ability to write. Our community leader this week has that ability and throughout the years has written pages and pages of publicity on behalf of local organizations about their activities. She has written publicity for ten years for the Girl Scouts. She also has served on the Jefferson High School PTA executive board for eight years devoting many of those years to writing publicity. For the past two years she has been corresponding secretary and recently was awarded a California life membership by the Jefferson PTA.

She is now library assistant to the librarian at the Westlake Branch of Daly City Library. We salute Mrs. Servart Ojakian as our community leader of the week. The Ojakian family have lived for eighteen years in Daly City. Her husband, Harry, is owner of Harry's Market on Mission Street. They have three children, George, senior at San Francisco State, and Marsha and Victor who attend Jefferson High School.

"Red sails in the sunset" — not only red sails but green, blue, all the colors of the rainbow will be blossoming out on Lake Merced next month when the official sailing season opens with their annual regatta on April 6. Many of the graceful boats now have colored spinnakers, gaily colored balloon sails. Last Sunday the "Blue Jay Sailing Club" tried their wings, brilliant colored sails on a blue lake in its spectacular setting of green trees and rolling hills—truly a magnificent sight! Many localities participate in the Lake Merced Sailing Club.

Tomorrow night is the night—March 21st when the Westmoor PTA has planned a most entertaining evening. Drama students will present a one-act play "The Sandbox" by Edward Albee. Those in the cast include Glinda Frederick, Stewart Klemm, Stefani Winter, Tom Osaro and Bob Post. Another group of students (Marilynn Winter, Pam Lipman, Phil Reagan, Lynda Lofes, Marie Misacrac, Barbara Kramer, Lynda Rundell) will act out impromptu skits. Do plan to attend—we know you'll have a most enjoyable evening and do stop by for coffee and refreshments afterwards.

Of interest to movie fans is the series of art movies now being shown in the main auditorium at San Francisco State College. There is no admission charge and you are invited to see this series of outstanding documentary, experimental and art films. Scheduled for March 27th is "Cross Country Runner," "Dom," "The Gymnasts," "I was a Ninety-pound Weepling," "Le Voyage De Mr. Q" and "Moreau." Do plan to go.

SOCIAL WHIRL: Many localities attended the dinner party last week hosted by Westlake residents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford F. Schoenfeld. Guests included the Edward Molkenbuhrs, the Howard Dunbars, the Lewis Berrys and the Danie Bernards from the local area. Also attending the party were San Rafael residents, the Richard DeKays.

It was a surprise luncheon for retiring president of M. Pauline Brown PTA, Mrs. George Buell, who will be leaving very shortly to live in Los Angeles. The Buells lived for almost twelve years in Broadmoor and now reside in Westlake Terraces. Attending the luncheon were Donald Pagan, principal, Larry Anderson and Miss Gail Wonderlin who teach at the school. Also attending were Mrs. Don Aron, Mrs. Robert Herring and Mrs. Kenneth Gillespie. The guest-of-honor was gifted with a bone china cup for her collection and a lovely iris corsage.

You're invited—the YWCA will be holding a series of coffee hours at various homes throughout the area on March 27th. Over coffee and rolls you can learn about the activities and classes offered by the local branch. Brochures will be available and you may sign up for the classes right at the coffee hour. Between Us Girls:

There's A New Look In Women CD Workers

By Emily Gillespie

For reasons unknown, some of us still have a mental picture of Civil Defense women workers as people with tweed suits, white tin hats, arm bands, sturdy low-heeled walking shoes and a brass whistle at the ready.

There wasn't a one of these creatures in sight last week as ladies representing 41 statewide women's organizations, and in turn representing many, many thousands of feminine memberships, gathered in Sacramento to exchange ideas and review current Civil Defense planning assumptions.

The women, almost 100 of them, met in the attractive and recently-completed Department of Employment Building on Capitol Avenue.

As members of the California Women's Civil Defense Council, a group of which meets semi-annually under the auspices of the California Disaster Office, the session was hosted by the Sacramento area Women's Civil Defense Council.

Participating in the all-day meeting were only three San Mateo County women: Mrs. George Elliott of Pescadero, who serves as civil defense chairman for the California Congress of Parents and Teachers; Mrs. Paul M. Booker of Belmont, who represents women's civil defense interest for the San Mateo County CD Office; and this writer.

None of us are the Helen Hokinson clubwoman-type.

Called to order by Mrs. Carolyn Barrick-Pratt, chief of the women's department of the California Disaster Office, early arrivals heard William Hamilton, consultant to the State Department of Education, discuss "Keys to Survival" covering individual and family approaches to the planning for shelter, supplies, evacuation and medical emergencies.

Les Wayne, president of the 110,000 member California State Employees Association, told of his group's CD training program and its availability for volunteer resource aid, reassuring word to the women who consider disaster preparation the humans and sensible approach to daily uncertainties.

This feeling is in obvious contrast to the reported 150 women who "marched" on the Capitol Building and CDO offices the week previous bearing placards and denouncing the CD requests being considered in the forthcoming California budget as "warlike appropriation of public funds!"

Before adjourning for lunch, the women, who included some of the 89 county and city women's CD co-ordinators in California, were escorted on a tour of the public fallout shelter, recently marked, that is located in the building in which they were meeting.

Shelter supplies and equipment to assist 5700 people were viewed in the Department of Employment Building. Leading the entourage was Kenneth Johnson, director of Sacramento area CD, and Robert W. Hubenette, assistant chief of engineering services for the California Disaster Office.

Under their direction space in the public building has been designated and licensed as a shelter and it houses literally thousands of cartons containing

League of Women Voters Will Discuss Area's Problems

"Bay Area Problems—Past and Present" will be the subject of a panel discussion at the general downtown meeting of the League of Women Voters at the Women's City Club, 465 Post street in San Francisco at noon today.

This review of the two year study on Bay Area problems made by the league will cover transportation, rapid transit, smog control and water pollution on a regional basis.

The Leagues of Women Voters of the Bay Area was formed four years ago to inform local leagues of these area-wide problems and to follow the activities of the various special districts and associations actively engaged in trying to find solutions. It represents the nine Bay Area counties.

Mrs. James R. Thul, treasurer of the local league, is in charge of the program as a representative of the Leagues of Women Voters of the Bay Area.

Parliamentarians Regional Conference Set for March 29

Star Of The Sea Annual Breakfast

About 500 Star of the Sea alumnae from Westlake, the Peninsula, and Bay Area counties will be gathering for the annual Mass and Communion breakfast on Sunday, April 7, according to Mrs. John P. Castagnola of San Mateo, who is president of the Academy's Alumnae Association.

Mass will be celebrated at 10 a.m. at Star of the Sea Church in San Francisco, followed by breakfast at the parish center.

The speaker for the occasion will be Rev. John J. Lo Schiavo, S. J., Dean of Student Activities at U. S. F.

The graduating class of 1963 will be welcomed into the alumnae association at this time. Sister Aileen Francis, principal of the Academy, will greet the alumnae; and the Sisters, many former graduates themselves, will welcome back their former classmates and pupils.

Mrs. Castagnola has appointed Mrs. William Ambrose as chairman of the event. Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. William Britton, MO 4-7669.

Ships-Cowboys For Library Friends

William E. Chapman, Daly City engineer, and Edward Tomasello, supervisor of recreation, will be guest speakers at the monthly book review, which is sponsored by the Friends of the Daly City Library and the YWCA. Date of the review is March 28 at 10:30 a.m. in the Westlake Bowl.

Chapman has entitled his review "Prophecy of Coincidence." Among the books he will discuss is "The Wreck of the Titan or Futatably," by Morgan Robertson. This book, as Chapman will show, predicted the wreck of the Titanic years before the Titanic was on the planning board. The books Chapman will review deal with natural phenomena that show the greatness of nature and the small scope of man's knowledge of the world and himself.

For years, Tomasello's special interest has been the literature and history of the West. In this review, he will discuss the books of an author who writes novels under pseudonyms, the most noted being Will Henry, and history under his real name, Henry Allen.

Both reviewers are members of the Daly City Toastmasters Club.

Chapman took his degree in civil engineering from the University of Illinois in 1955. He is well known in civic affairs and belongs to the Daly City-Colma Lions Club. He and his wife, Virginia, live at 221 St. Catherine's drive in Daly City. They are the parents of five children.

"Hats, Hats, Hats," Buri Buri Club's Program Topic

Hats! Hats! Hats! Not as defense against climate, nor as a badge of rank, but as their aesthetic development from the Empress Eugenie to the "Jackie Pillow."

This is the program of the Buri Buri Woman's Club planned for tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at the Buri Buri Community Methodist Church, Del Monte and El Campo streets in South San Francisco.

The lecture will be given by Mrs. Frances Slides and will be illustrated by her collection of hats. Other details interesting to women, such as songs and dances, will be discussed.

Before the program, three new members will be initiated into the club. They are Mrs. John Schellenberger, Mrs. Ralph Lewis and Mrs. Alvin Elkins. Honoring them, a coffee hour was held Tuesday, March 19, at the home of Mrs. W. R. King.

Y-Teen Clubs

Up And Coming

The YWCA a popular world-wide fellowship organization whose membership is open to all women and girls, has an up-and-coming branch in San Mateo County.

Among the most active groups of this branch are the Y-teen clubs.

Daly City boasts several Y-teen social and service clubs. At Jefferson High School the girls have just elected a corps of officers to lead their activities. President Sally Parrish heads the executive committee, Cassandra Williams, secretary, and Debbie Williams, activity chairman. The Jefferson group meets at the school in room 4 at 3:30 p.m.

Swinging into action at Benjamin Franklin School are Barbara Disque, president; Jackie O'Brien, vice-president; Peggy Medlock, secretary; and Pam Turner, treasurer. The growing group holds meetings on the second and fourth Wednesdays of every month at 3:30 p.m.

Included in each club's agendas are discussion meetings and business meetings. One meeting a month is devoted to a guest speaker who discusses a topic of teen-age interest. At business meetings the girls plan their social events and service projects.

This spring's social calendar, which is a joint project between the Daly City groups, includes a slumber party in March at the downtown San Francisco Y, a horseback riding expedition in April, a dance in May, and a beach party in June.

A new Y-Teen Club will be starting in upper Colma.

In addition to the above clubs there is a Y-Teen group at Westmore High School. This group meets at the school and is directed by Mary Ann Holden. Miss Holden may be contacted for details about this club.

Women Voters To Visit Capitol

The League of Women Voters of San Francisco is planning to visit the State Capitol at Sacramento Tuesday. This will be an opportunity for League members and their friends to attend sessions of the Senate and Assembly.

The trip will be made by buses which will load in front of the Women's City Club, 463 Post street, at 8:45 a.m.

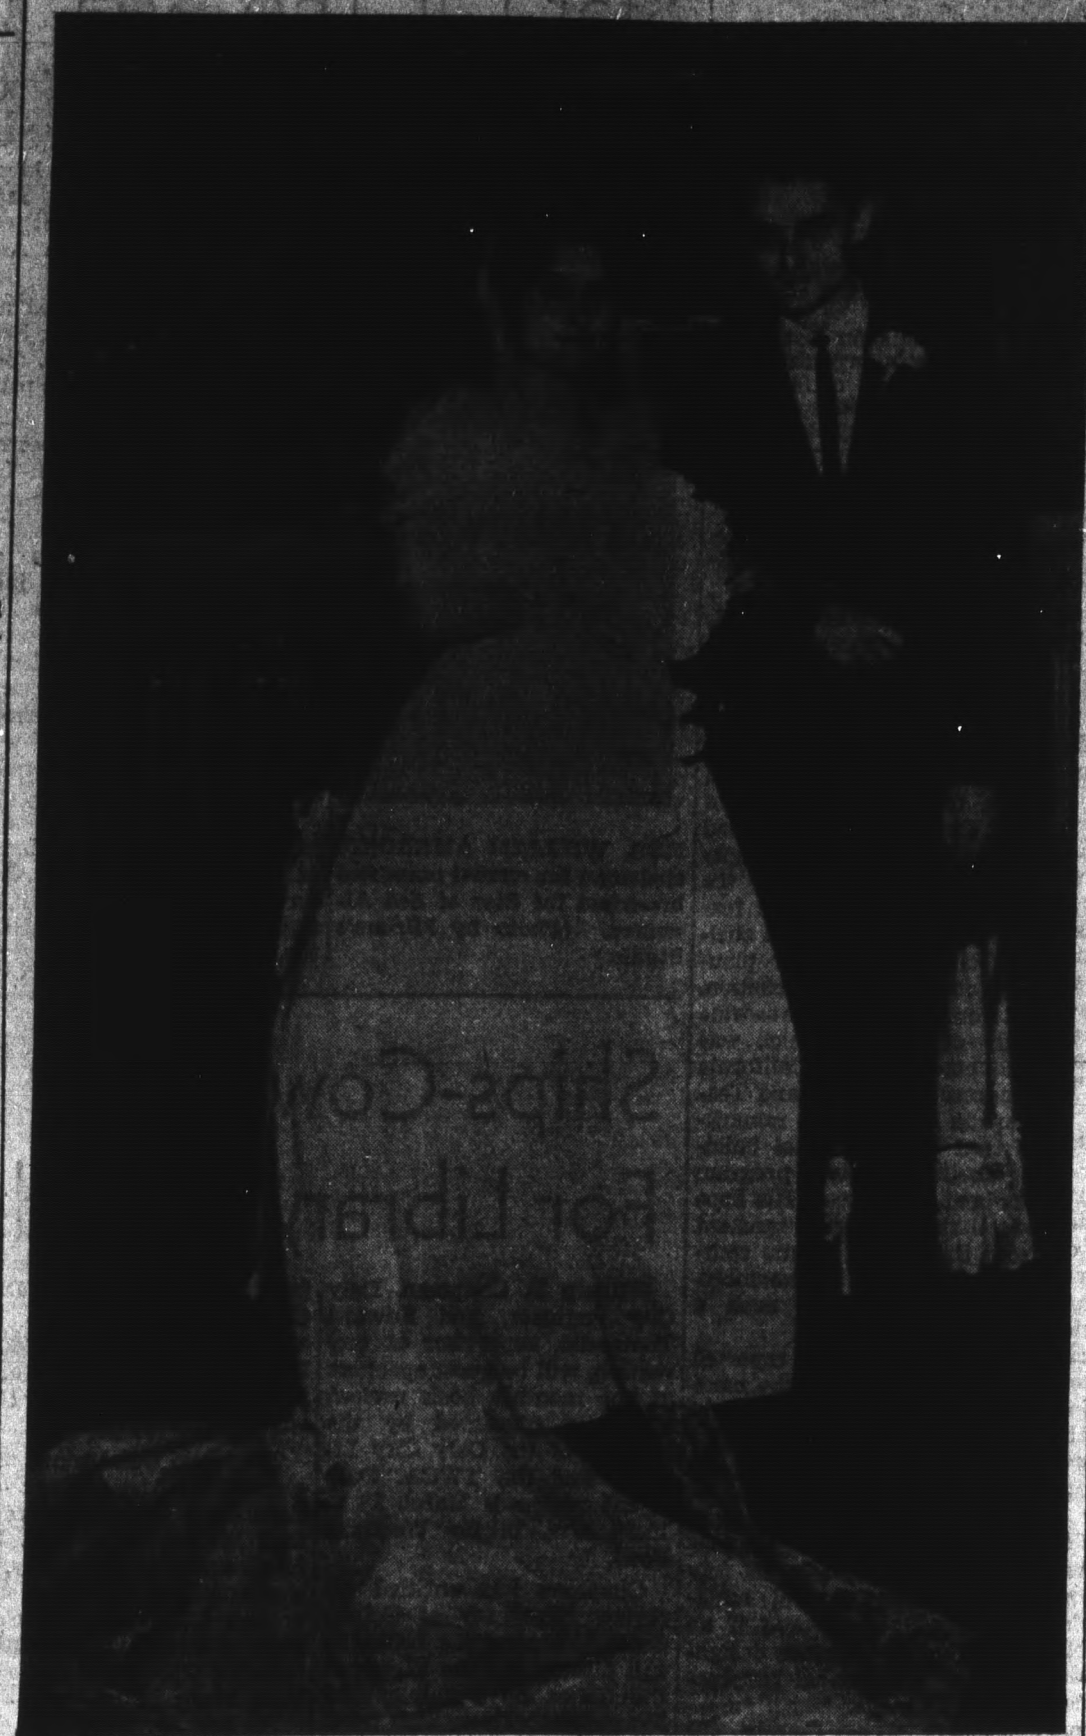

At the noon luncheon, Mrs. John Egan, League of Women Voters' legislative secretary, will speak on her role in Sacramento. In the afternoon the group will attend various committee meetings.

SSF Women Hold Spring Bazaar

The South San Francisco Women's Club will hold a spring bazaar at their club house, 470 Grand ave., SSF, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. tomorrow.

Wares include pillow cases, dish towels, dish rags, pot holders, aprons of all sorts and sizes, Easter decorations, plants and other garden things, occasional cards, and treasures and trinkets, sandwiches, cakes, coffee or tea, and candy.

So much change is in the offing that it is estimated that half of the children now in elementary school will, as adults, be employed in occupations that do not now exist.

A BANDEAU TRIMMED WITH PEARLS secured the beautiful full-length carmine lace veil worn by the former Diane Colthurst as she exchanged vows with Lajos Mocz recently at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Catholic Church. Her lovely gown, which terminated in a full-length flowing train, is treasured family heirloom, and had been worn by the bride's sister, Mrs. Mark Chatingy, and her aunt, Mrs. Frank Madigan, at their wedding almost a quarter of a century ago. Diane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Colthurst of Daly City.

Catholic Charity Meet In San Mateo

The Rev. Edwin E. Barker, M.S.W., newly appointed director of the San Mateo County Catholic Social Service Agency, presided at his first official function as host to the Archbishop's Catholic Charities Committee of One Hundred recently.

The dinner meeting was held at the Elks Club in San Mateo.

His Excellency, Most Reverend Joseph T. McGucken, archbishop of San Francisco, has appointed Father Barker as director of the county Catholic Social Service Agency to succeed the Rev. Thomas F.

Regan, who has been transferred to new duties as pastor of Our Lady of the Pillar Church in Half Moon Bay. Father Barker has served as associate director with Father Regan during the past year.

Archbishop McGucken was guest of honor and principal speaker at the dinner meeting. His committee of one hundred persons, representing the various Catholic charity organizations, are those who serve in an honorary or advisory capacity to the archbishop in matters pertaining to Catholic charity.

The meeting highlighted and honored the women's auxiliaries of the Social Service Agencies, the institutions and hospitals of the archdiocese. The officers of the local Catholic Social Service auxiliary, headed by its president, Mrs. Lachlin McKinnon, acted as hostesses.

Honored guests included Rt. Rev. James M. Murray, archdiocesan director of Catholic Charities; Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Cummins, pastor of St. Catherine's Church in Burlingame, and honorary chairman of the board of directors of the local agency, and the reverend directors of all the other Catholic agencies and institutions of the archdiocese.

Everyone visiting the festival will see the parish hall completely transformed to coincide with the "Showboat Time" theme. Dario Bacocco and Ed Cuevas will be responsible for the decorations, and George Bilgon will direct all booth construction.

Brownies Hold Dads Luncheon

Members of Brownie Troop 638 treated their fathers to a St. Patrick's luncheon on March 3. The festive theme was apparent with green and white shamrock place mats. The Brownies made most of the preparations for the affair, with some assistance with the cooking of the corned beef and cabbage dinner from Mrs. Baum, a troop mother.

Troop 638's members are Janet Baum, Loreen Blanchini, Casey Clair, Liz Darragh, Ginger Hendrickson, Terry Lalle, Karen Lane, Adrienne Leving, Sophia Makras, Colleen O'Hara, Susan Malazar, Sherese Stevens and Corinne Walsh.

The girls enjoyed dancing the twist with their fathers before ending the occasion. Mrs. Salazar, troop leader, and her troop are now preparing a "surprise" for the mothers now that the fathers were so honored.

Literary tradition of New Mexico begins with the orally transmitted myths, legends, and rituals of the Indians who were native to the soil when the Spaniards came and still inhabit it.

Chicago Crooks

Somehow or other, crooks in Chicago have always seemed to have that extra something. The latest extra something reports the National Automobile Club is an automobile especially designed for carrying off stolen cars. With no rear seats, a floor covered with heavy steel, steel rails, steel rollers, slipping a heavy safe in and spitting it away is just no trick at all.

The handy car came to public attention when police forced the car to the curb and captured it. The three occupants fled, but left behind their car and a handsome safe that contained several hundred dollars.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Preliminary Determination and of Intention and said report including plans, profiles, specifications, estimate of costs, diagram and assessment and maps and descriptions, for a more particular description of said acquisitions and improvements to be had and done, and for further particulars file in the office of the County Clerk.

The Success... It Didn't Last

When it comes to low cost and economy of upkeep, few cars have been able to touch the Success.

Produced in the United States in 1906, the Success had a steel-tire model that sold for $250 and a rubber-tire model that sold for $275. Both models could get more than 100 miles to a gallon of gas.

The "fly in the ointment," however, was a definite lack of power and speed. The engine of the Success could generate only two horsepower.

WHAT EVERY WOMAN SHOULD KNOW ABOUT HER AUTOMOBILE

By WENDY WHEELER

Auto-Torium Feminine Driving Consultant

Since I have been writing this column, I have received many letters from you ladies asking questions about your cars and the art of driving. It makes my day so much more interesting to get mail! Here are a few samples:

Dear Wendy: I have lived in San Francisco for almost a year but still don't know why the curbs are painted all these different colors. Can you explain? J. J.

Dear J. J.: You may think that the Curb Painters Union decided to brighten up the city a bit, but the real reason is less aesthetic. A red curb means no stopping or parking except for buses a yellow curb permits stopping for loading or unloading freight or passengers or to deposit mail and a green curb permits parking only for a limited time. Now, let's hope that you're not color-blind!

Dear Wendy: What should a woman do if she is driving alone at night? A. L. M.

Dear A. L. M.: Don't drive alone at night if you can avoid it. Ask your husband or that handsome man you know to accompany you—it's much more fun that way. However, if you absolutely must travel by yourself, lock your doors, keep the windows rolled up, and stay off dark streets. If you think you are being followed, don't scream for Superman to come to your rescue, and for heaven's sake, don't drive to your own driveway. You'll be safer heading for the nearest gas station, police station, restaurant, or other well-lighted place. And it's a good idea to carry a flashlight in the glove compartment of your car. Auto-Torium Stores have a nice selection of flashlights.

Dear Wendy: I am one of your male readers, and I would like to know how you recommend I handle a sharp curve. T. W.

Dear T. W.: It depends on who threw it to you. Maybe you should be writing to Ann Landers, and not me. She's much more experienced in that kind of curve! If you are talking about the curves in the road, however, then I advise that you take your foot off the accelerator when you are approaching a sharp turn, and brake if necessary. It's much easier to handle a curve when you're driving slowly than if you're trying to imitate Sterling Moss. Most curves are graded, that is they are built on a slant so that they are easier to maneuver...and most highways give you plenty of fair warning that a curve is ahead. On a country road, you should honk your horn upon approaching a curve...there may be a road hog coming the other way (or just a plain hog, for that matter!).

Family Festival At Seacliff Church

A Festival for the entire family in the oriental theme will be the setting for the annual Spring get together for all ages at the Seacliff Community Church. It will be held Friday night, March 22, from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at the Church on Northridge Dr. in Daly City.

A tempting "cover dish" dinner has been arranged to follow the theme, and the decor, under the direction of Mrs. Del Dilbeck will be ably executed by Mrs. Harold Maxwell, Mrs. Edward Knott, Mrs. Gene Biederman, and Mrs. Art Hagstrom with Betty Disque and Amy Jeromin assisting coordinators.

The program, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Toft will feature the showing of two films. One for children, titled "Pal Lee's Discovery," is a story of refugee children in Hong Kong. The other, "On the Run of Tomorrow," brings into focus the interdenominational study of the Board of Foreign Missions and is a pictorial challenge of Christian problems in Okinawa, Korea, Hong Kong, and Taiwan. This film, in great demand, will be of particular interest for its factual content.

This evening of entertainment, inspiration and fellowship has been planned for all ages and a nursery is available with competent attendants. Anyone interested will receive a cordial welcome and should call Pastor Robb at PL 6-0612 for reservations.

Temple Judea News Briefs

Temple Judea will hold its regular Sabbath Evening Services this coming Friday, March 22, at 8:30 p.m. at the Temple, 65 South Mayfair Avenue, in Westlake. Rabbi Herbert Morris will speak on the topic "Ask the Rabbi."

Members of the Girls Auxiliary of the Westlake Southern Baptist Church will be guests of Temple Judea at this Sabbath Service. This group of young girls—ages 9 to 15—is under the guidance of Mrs. Bill Wilhite, their counselor; they will come to Temple Judea's Services to learn something about the beliefs, traditions, and customs of Reform Judaism.

There will be an Oneg Shabbat (social) at the Temple following the services. Hostesses will be Mrs. Birdie Applebaum, Mmes. Peter Bellak, and Julius Salzman.

Temple Judea Sisterhood Saturday night, March 30, is the date of the next joint social activity sponsored by Temple Judea Sisterhood-Men's Club. A dinner-dance will be held at the House of Lawton, 1925 Lawton street, San Francisco—to commence at 8:30 p.m.

'Behold the Jew' at Starlighter Meeting

The "Starlighters" auxiliary of the City of Hope held its dinner meeting yesterday at Continental Lodge. The session featured a special reading of "Behold the Jew" by Mrs. John Tuteur.

Lenten Sermons At Westside Baptist

In this Lenten season our minds turn to the fact of the Cross, the Crucifixion, and the Resurrection of Christ. Does the Cross today have any significance for us? Is the message of the Cross of Christ relevant today? These are some questions which will be discussed by the Pastor A. David Donnelly, on Sunday morning, March 24, at the Morning Worship Hour of the Westside Baptist Church, which meets at 11 a.m. in the auditorium of the Southwood School, Southwood Drive and Hill Streets in South San Francisco. His message topic will be, "The Significance of the Cross." Special music will be provided for this service, and a Primary Church will be provided during the preaching portion of the service, for children 4 years through the third grade.

One of the last words spoken by Christ from the Cross, was "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." At the Evening Gospel Hour which meets at 7 p.m., the message by the Pastor will be entitled, "They Know Not." This evening service is an informal type service, with a period of singing favorite songs, and choruses. This evening, the songs will be songs which have to do with the Cross of Christ, and His forgiving spirit.

Three Youth Fellowship groups meet each Sunday night at 6:15 p.m. for their time of fellowship, information and inspiration. Senior High young people and Junior High youth, meet as Conference Youth Fellowship groups, and have fine Bible Centered programs each week to present. The Junior age boys and girls have a program called Jet-Cadets, with the group divided into a number of squadrons, and the elected officers of the group have titles, likened to the Air Force personnel.

Thursday morning, March 21, at 10 a.m., the women

HISTORIC FACT—Congregation B'nai Israel, 97 Los Banos in Daly City is the oldest Jewish Synagogue on the Peninsula. Founded in 1908, the church will be relocated in the future to make way for the Junipero Serra Freeway.

B'nai Israel Founded In '08

Congregation B'nai Israel, first met in a private home for services in 1905 in Daly City. As the group grew the services were held more frequently. After a year or so, the group rented an empty store on the corner of Vista Grande and Miriam streets, and thus, an actual sanctuary was established.

In 1908, a considerable number of families were in favor of obtaining a lot in order to put up a small edifice which would service the religious as well as the social needs of the group. A lot was obtained at 67 Los Banos, Keys Barak, who headed the project, actually became the first president of the newly created congregation.

It was the first Jewish synagogue on the Peninsula outside of San Francisco. The year, 1908, was therefore a memorial date in the memory of some of the old residents who still remember the historic occasion.

By 1920 a Sunday school was established by Mattie Alcovitch, known then as Miss Sayer. Ladies Auxiliary bore the official name of Daughters of Israel, which is still in existence.

Morris Wolf and Hyman Rosenberg both served as the head of the congregation during the course of the years. Rabbi Solomon A. Shore served since 1957. He is the first professional Rabbi the congregation had. He converted the meet for their Bible Class, with Mrs. Alton Swedberg, the discussion leader, discussing the book of John. The class meets at the home of Mrs. Clair Sturdevant, 111 Adrian Avenue, South San Francisco.

Thursday evening, at 7:30 p.m., at the Sturdevant home, a Leadership Training Class, with the Sunday School Superintendent as instructor meets, studying a book entitled, "How To Teach the Word of God." The class meets for two 45-minute periods each week, and the series continues over a five-week period.

Prayer and Bible Study meetings are held in various homes during the course of the month, and on Wednesday evening, March 20 at 7:45 p.m. at the Gilmore-Swanson home, 442 Helen Drive, Millbrae, the group will meet. The Pastor continues to lead in a series of studies from the Gospels, on the Soul Winning or Personal Evangelism of Jesus. Although meeting in a home, this meeting is open to any and all who care to attend and enjoy this time of Bible Study and prayer.

Westside Baptist Church is affiliated with the Baptist General Conference and is holding its Sunday services, at the present time, in the auditorium of the Southwood School, Southwood Drive and Hill Street in South San Francisco.

Local beneficiaries include the Emanuel Residence Club, Homewood Terrace child care agency, Jewish Family Service Agency, Mt. Zion Hospital and Medical Center and the United Jewish Community Centers.

Mental Health Talk At Temple Baptist

Next Sunday night Chaplain Herman Elchorn, from the State Mental Hospital at Napa, will speak about the Church's ministry to the mentally ill at Temple Baptist Church, 3355 - 19th Avenue, near Stonestown. The service begins at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Mr. Elchorn has been chaplain at Napa since before 1955, and has also served as professor of pastoral counseling at Berkeley Baptist Divinity School. He is active in the training of pastors and counselors as a part of his work.

At 6 p.m. Chaplain Elchorn will lead an informal adult study group on the nature of mental illness, while other classes for children and youth are being held. This is part of a study on the ministry of the Church to persons of special need. Visitors and their families are most welcome to attend.

Hour Of Sharing To Be Held Sunday

The members and friends, and Sunday school children of Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, along with church members of 35 other major denominations throughout the United States, will participate next Sunday, March 24, in the annual One Great Hour of Sharing, an interdenominational world-relief appeal.

Funds derived from adult contributions on this special Sunday, and from collections in tiny cardboard church banks given to Sunday School children, will be used to alleviate suffering and privation in all parts of the world. Particular emphasis is given at this time to the needs of the thousands of Cuban refugees in Florida. The Rev. Herbert Tweedie, pastor of the 87th Street church, said, "All over America, on this one Sunday, our churches unite to recognize the need to help those who really need help, whose needs are almost beyond our comprehension, who are so abundantly blessed in this country."

Mr. Tweedie related the purchasing power of gifts with these examples. He said, "One dollar will send 300 pounds of surplus U. S. food-stocks to refugee areas. 350 children can receive a cup of milk and a slice of bread daily for ten weeks for five dollars. Ten dollars provides bread which will feed 9,000 people, one slice each. We can feed 225 children for one month on 25 dollars, while sufficient cereal for 150,000 children's bowls may be supplied by a 50 dollar gift. Not all the monies are used simply for food. Families must get back to a self-supporting status, and with tools and machines we can help them do so. A sewing or knitting machine, a vital concern in undeveloped areas, may be purchased for 100 dollars, and 200 dollars will set up an artisan in a family business as a carpenter, locksmith, or tradesman."

Concluded Tweedie, "If we pause to examine these numbers, not merely as statistics, but as the actual daily physical needs for thousands upon thousands of unfortunate human beings, we cannot help but make the comparison between their existence needs and our lives here of relative luxury, and share our blessings."

Tonight (Wednesday, March 20) three Kolnina study groups meet for study of Christian fellowship: a n d commitment. Hosting the informal sessions are Mr. and Mrs. John Rued, Mr. and Mrs. William Powers, and Mrs. Ward McLeod.

Local Residents Air Views at San Mateo County Meet on Retarded

A variety of points of view were presented at a panel composed of a principal, teacher, employer, and vocational adviser discussed the topic: "Knocking at the Employer's Door" at a recent program on the retarded child, sponsored by the evening college of the College of San Mateo.

Miss Caroline Wood, consultant at Sequoia Union High School for the special education classes, moderated the panel and opened the discussion by posing the crucial question of "What is going to happen to the mentally retarded young person when he leaves school?"

John Mongan, principal of Jefferson High School in Daly City, had several constructive suggestions. Teachers of classes for the mentally retarded at Jefferson High School have a block of time in their programs to go out into the community to make personal contact with employers and labor unions to coordinate their needs with the school program.

Mongan said: "Unless we can make our children realistically gainfully employed in a situation, we aren't actually fulfilling our role in educating them in high school." Consistent with his view that "every child has a right to education in this democracy, regardless of IQ," Mongan keeps the faculty of Jefferson High School informed of the goals and equal importance of the educational program for the intellectually handicapped.

Mrs. Richard Waldeich, teacher of special education classes at Jefferson High School, suggested that the community be kept informed through social and service clubs of the goals of the work-school program for the retarded. "Juniors and seniors should be out on a part-time job while in school; sophomores need work experience on the school campus."

Don Davis, manager of J.C. Penney's store in Westlake, who has had successful experience with hiring the mentally retarded, felt that with proper training the handicapped individual can become sufficiently self confident and develop a source of responsibility required for the world of work.

The program concluded with the remarks of Frank Pepper, consultant for the California State Rehabilitation Service. He emphasized that the mentally retarded individual's education should train him for realistic situations such as using the telephone, making change, learning to travel independently, and to apply for a job.

Proceeds help support not only individual troop activities but the council's program as well.

Scout-O-Rama tickets will be sold to the public by members of the Boy Scouts, beginning April 5. Scout equipment prizes will be awarded, depending on the number of tickets sold.

The Public Be Gagged

Undersecretary of State George W. Ball demands an end to the "hectoring" of the Kennedy Administration over its Cuba policies.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk complains that negotiations for a nuclear test ban are made more difficult by "public debate."

Former Secretary of State Dean Acheson tells a press conference at UC that international affairs are unfathomable by the average man, and should be left to the Kennedy "pros."

Assistant Secretary of State Robert J. Manning warns us that without managed news "chaos and a great dangerous state of affairs" would be the order of the day.

Do you suppose State is trying to tell us something? Like maybe—as a Vice Presidential candidate once remarked about farmers—we are too damped dumb to understand? Or, that to question the New Frontier is not only presumptuous but close to treason?

What's In A Name?

We are often intrigued by the uses made in politics of words such as "liberal," "conservative," and "middle-of-the-road." Depending upon who is speaking, one can be condemned as one or another of the above labels.

Even more interesting is the twist that has been given to the words "liberal" and "conservative." Originally, a liberal was one who stood for more individual freedom from government restraint—one who felt that the least regulation was the best regulation. He was a strong believer in free enterprise, individual initiative and states' rights.

The conservative, of course, wanted the status quo—tight control by the central government, restrictions on business and labor, and individual freedom limited by law. Somehow, in the past decades these meanings have become reversed, and one who opposes the federal and state governments increasing intervention into all phases of our life is now a conservative!

There are extremes in both "liberal" and "conservative" points of view. We think, however, that they serve a very necessary purpose—without the limits they proscribed, there would be no place for all of us "middle-of-the-roads!"

So while we cannot agree with either extreme, we're happy that they make us pick and choose an in-between position with which we can live.

It Can't Happen Again?

The years have been so crowded with events that it is hard to realize that thirty have passed since the bank holiday, "the day the money stopped" by decree from Washington. But they have and Caroline Bird recalls in Look the courage, tragedy and humor of March 6, 1933.

Yes, there was a bit of humor. For one thing the late John Rockefeller, Sr., ran out of dimes and had to give his golf caddy a dollar. There were novel ways of continuing business. In Atlanta, a taxi driver accepted postage stamps. In Buffalo, a winning prize fighter received his purse in potatoes and tomatoes. All of us who were alive then have stories of our own.

According to the article, this cannot happen again. Federal Deposit Insurance, paid for by the banks themselves, now guarantees bank accounts up to $10,000. More important, there are fewer banks, and they are stronger. Economic indicators exist to forecast trouble.

"Almost everybody," says Miss Bird, "now distinguishes between real wealth and the yellow stuff."

Considering that the United States now owes more gold than it owns, this is important—if true!

The View From .. Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

1. Summary

Because all police activities must be reported, all officers are burdened with the task of writing or dictating several compositions each duty day.

Departmental standard operating procedures and custom lay down the ways and means as to how the officer will execute this task. Different departments use different methods. Most of these methods do the job insofar as the recording of the problems and the things done are concerned.

Inasmuch as departments differ in methods and degree of reporting, it is sometimes difficult for the casual reader of the reports to extract the information that is pertinent to his purposes. These purposes may be for intelligence, prosecution, probation reports, insurance, and many others.

When the reader must scan reports in volume, it is reasonably essential to be able to extract information by category. This is the reason for the system of Category Reporting.

2. Victims and Witnesses

V-1; Gerald Ragan, white male adult, 34 years, 5 feet 11 inches in height, 165 pounds, brown hair and blue eyes; a deputy district attorney.

V-2; James Browning, white male adult, 30 years, 6 feet 1 1/2 inches in height, 165 pounds, brown hair and brown eyes; a deputy district attorney.

Various other witnesses and victims may later be identified from the ranks of report readers. Among them are police supervisors, attorneys, members of allied and neighboring agencies, probation and parole officers, and others. Those who are so identified will be listed in a follow-up report.

3. Suspects

S-1; Robert Crocker, white male adult, 39 years, 6 feet 2 inches in height, 210 pounds, brown hair and hazel eyes; a police patrolman.

S-2; Jerry Galindo, white male adult, 36 years, 5 feet 11 inches in height, 220 pounds, black hair and brown eyes; a sergeant of police.

Various other suspects may later be identified from the ranks of report writers. Those who are so identified will be listed in a follow-up report.

4. Investigation

A pilot program was instituted, using representative members of each departmental unit to make a practical trial examination of a revised system. Emphasis was made on clarity and categorization of the report. The two goals were to (1) make it simple for the reader to extract information necessary to him, and (2) to provide a written-in check list for the reporting officer to follow.

After trials, conferences, and modifications, the present system was adopted and is presently being utilized.

The Sacramento Scene

By Capital News Service

Tax talk in the current session of the legislature is just about as serious as it has been in Sacramento for perhaps the last 20 years.

The question has boiled down to not whether new taxes will be needed this year or next, but how much? From what sources? And when?

Gov. Edmund G. Brown, on the basis of expected state benefits from a federal tax cut, through additional tidal oil royalty revenues, and a procedure to withhold state income from a weekly pay checks, had expressed hopes a tax increase might be avoided until after 1965.

But prospects are dim that a withholding tax will be adopted. And there is no guarantee that this would meet the costs, even if it is adopted.

Some thinking on the subject was offered by Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Tulare). Unruh said there is little doubt that if the legislature continues to initiate new programs, there will have to be some sort of tax increase.

Unruh said he felt the lawmakers should adopt the plan for a county-wide school tax estimated to produce another 25 million dollars a year. He said the legislature also should consider an extra two cents per package on the cigarette tax, removal of all exemptions from sales tax (such as food) and the inauguration of night harness racing, a revenue producer.

Senator Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), president pro tem of the senate, said new taxes will be inevitable unless present programs are curtailed and all new programs or expansions of service are denied.

Meanwhile, if Brown and his administration are looking upon the withholding of personal income tax as the temporary solution to financial ills, there is a strong indication they might do well to look elsewhere. A poll of the senate revenue and taxation committee, which eventually would have to consider a withholding tax bill, showed only two members prepared to vote in favor of it. In a poll of ten of the 11 committee members, there were six outright no votes and two undecided.

However, the latter two indicated they would need considerable persuasion and some changes which Brown said he would not make, in order to get their votes.

Tax increase talk was not confined to the legislature. At a face-to-face meeting of Hale Champion, director of finance, and A. Alan Post, legislative auditor, the subject came up. Post said new taxes appeared to be inevitable during the next session of the legislature.

He admitted that, even if the 100 million dollars in budget reductions he has recommended were accepted, there still would be a need for new taxes. Post has recommended the proposed pay raise for state employees be denied, the 30 million dollars in additional aid to public schools be denied, that certain construction projects be delayed and that none of the new programs recommended by the governor be approved.

Champion said the differences between the budget and Post's recommendations were policy ones and that Post wanted to "hold the line" despite increasing needs. An old fight may be renewed in the legislature and this also has a strong bearing on the financial problem. This is the matter of tideland oil royalties and what should be done with them. At present, the state's general fund gets the first 15 million from oil royalties and the balance goes into the water development fund.

Governor Brown has proposed that the first nine million should go to the water fund and all the rest to the general fund.

Affairs Of State

By Henry C. MacArthur

An announcement by Joseph W. Farber, state director of veterans affairs, regarding the financing of veteran home and farm purchases, deserves some note, as it is evidence of a trend in this state.

Farber said he would not recommend any further bond issues for the well-known farm and purchase program, and in addition, declared he would not support legislation which would include home refinancing in the program.

"The intent of the program," Farber asserted, "was to give the veteran a helping hand in his original purchase of a home. His intent has been carried out."

The veterans bond program is probably the only program of its kind in California which has not cost the taxpayers of the state anything, in the way of principal, interest, or administration. It has been entirely self-supporting, and the state merely loaned its credit to get the program under way. It has been under way for more than 40 years, having started back in 1921, after World War I.

Refinancing of these state purchased homes, or at least partially purchased by the state, would create an advantage to the veteran above and beyond the call of gratitude by the people, Farber believes.

The youngsters who build model airplanes were in the position today of not knowing whether, in the future, they'll have to have their parents buy their glue for them or get a prescription for it from the family doctor.

As the result of reports of juveniles who sniffed the glue for a form of intoxication, Assemblyman Tom Carrell (D-San Fernando) introduced a bill some weeks ago restricting the sale of airplane glue to adults. Now, Carrell said he's run into so much opposition from glue manufacturers that he is striking back by having the glue included in a list of poisons subject to the poison law.

Under this law, poisons can be sold only by pharmacists and the same would be true for the airplane glue.

"My original proposal, which merely restricted the sale of these dangerous substances to adults on the presumption that parents would accept the responsibility of monitoring its use, has received much support from individuals and from a number of civic associations," Carrell said. "The extent of the opposition from certain business interests, together with a certain amount of bureaucratic resistance has prompted this invitation to a showdown."

Something For Everyone

by Samuel Chandler

I received another comment that was induced by my thoughts as published a few weeks ago. This time a woman wants to know if I think today's writers are too conventional.

Yes, I think many of them are. They have made conventions out of the styles and practices that were explored during the 1920's and 1930's by authors who desired to picture, yet denounce the barren spirit of America and the rigidity of the Victorian Age.

As a result, too many stories are mere glibble-gabble. Too many novelists write into their stories clandestine romances whether they belong there or not. Usually two lovers have a wild and exciting time before marriage. If marriage is even possible; sometimes before they're introduced.

It is conventional, but not necessary, to use crude and offensive words. Sometimes they come from the mouths of characters who are supposed to be sophisticated and polished, even from ministers and teachers.

It's conventional to take the elements of everyday experiences and totally fragment them, then re-arrange them into something that reads like the case histories in a psychiatrist's file.

It's conventional to write ambiguous sentences because Hemingway and others got away with it. Consequently, the meaning is doubtful and the whole novel is flat. I wish writers would pay more attention to syntax, and the proper use of figures of speech and picturesque words.

It has become conventional to borrow the theme used by some long gone genius and make it over into a 20th century experience.

Yes, I think many of today's writers are too conventional. It seems to me that every author who awakens and challenges his reader must write in his own style and according to his inspiration. History shows that the world pays attention to men who write by their feelings rather than by the conventions of the time.

Of the more than 71 million Americans who go to work every day, 64 per cent drive back and forth to the job, and a good many of them log as much as 60 to 100 miles in a round trip.

Bank safety is more than the guard at the door.

A bank keeps your money safe—but not just by locking it up. Besides keeping large cash reserves, banks make careful investments. Banks invest in industry, in shops, in farms. They put money in auto loans, personal loans, real estate loans. It's the old principle of spreading out for safety. Safety which makes thousands of people choose one place for their savings: a bank.

MEN IN SERVICE

M. L. MARQUEDISON, SR.
Chief Boatwain's Mate

DC Has New Navy Recruiter

M. L. Marquedison, Sr., chief boatwain's mate, United States Navy, has been assigned to the Navy recruiting branch station, 6705 Mission street in Daly City. Chief Marquedison is a veteran of 18 years Navy service and served in the Pacific during World War II and the Korean Conflict. He was a seaman on the USS Alcyon AKA-7, the first Navy cargo ship to enter Tokyo Bay after the signing of the peace treaty with the Japanese in 1945.

Prior to reporting for recruiting duty, he served on the USS Wilkeson, Destroyer Leader 5, stationed at Long Beach, as chief boatwain's mate and chief master at arms.

He and his wife, the former Dorothy Waters, and their son, Melvin, reside at 636 El Camino Real in South San Francisco.

Tuvo Finishes At San Diego

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Marine Private Angelo F. Tuvo, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo F. Tuvo Sr. of 1278 Morridge ave., South San Francisco, completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The indoctrination to Marine Corps life includes instruction in basic military law, discipline, physical conditioning, and other military subjects. Three weeks are spent on the rifle range, where recruits fire the M-14 rifle and receive instruction on other infantry weapons.

Langland Is Serving Aboard USS Ranger

USS RANGER—Robert N. Langland, machinist's mate first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond N. Langland of 24 Wilms, South San Francisco, is serving aboard the aircraft carrier USS Ranger, the site of the February 14th ceremony commemorating America's first salute from a foreign power.

The ceremony took place on the Ranger's flight deck while the ship was anchored off Sasebo, Japan. It marked the 185th anniversary since John Paul Jones' frigate Ranger received France's recognition of the United States as an independent nation.

In the ceremony aboard the modern Ranger, the Commander Carrier Division Five Band played the National Anthem and a color guard from the Ranger's Marine Detachment fired a nine-gun salute as a special colors detail lowered the ship's flag at sunset.

The Ranger, now on her fourth Far East cruise, has visited Yokosuka, Japan, and Subic Bay and Manila, Philippines, since leaving her homeport Alameda, Calif., in November.

Edwards Completes Recruit Training

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Marine Private John L. Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florentina L. Edwards of 230 Santa Barbara, Daly City, completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The indoctrination to Marine Corps life includes instruction in basic military law, discipline, physical conditioning, and other military subjects.

Three weeks are spent on the rifle range, where recruits fire the M-14 rifle and receive instruction on other infantry weapons.

Azaleas Most Popular Spring Blooming Plants

Visit a spring garden show and ask the first ten people you see: "What are your favorite flowers in the show?" It's an odds on bet that most of them will answer, "azaleas."

Azaleas and their cousins, rhododendrons, are undoubtedly the showiest of our spring blooming plants in California and we who live here are extremely fortunate to be able to grow them so easily. Except in the Deep South, there are no other states in the nation which can grow any and all of these lovely fixtures of spring.

To label them as favorites of spring is correct, but as gardeners in the milder sections of California know, some azaleas have been showing occasional color since last fall. These are primarily the Belgian Indicas, some of which break their first blooms when summer is scarcely over. After a flush of color in October and November, they taper off with spotted blooms until spring, when they launch into full bloom once again.

The gardener can make his selection of these Belgian Indicas any time during late winter and early spring, for they are sure to be showing color in most California Association of Nurserymen showyards. Some varieties that are typical of the breed are Bluebird, Albert and Elizabeth, Paul Schame, Sweet Sixteen, Dr. Bergman, and Rose Queen. There are dozens of Belgian Indicas other than these, however, and the gardener should not shop for them with any fixed ideas. The above names will help you identify the type.

Another type of azalea which is popular in California—especially in northern California—is the Mollis Hybrid. These are deciduous azaleas, breaking out with a rush of bloom that smother the plant before any leaves begin to arrive. These will make good sized shrubs in time and provide gardeners who grow them with brilliant splashes of color. They are colorful in fall, too, when the leaves turn to crimson and orange before dropping off. Plant them where you won't mind their winter bareness.

Vegetables

Many vegetable growers think only in terms of the annual crops which he plants and harvests during the same year. The California Association of Nurserymen reminds us that two favorite vegetables—artichokes and asparagus—are perennial in nature and can be planted now for harvest over several years. You don't get crops this first year, naturally, but you will get them for at least the next decade from divisions set out now.

'Surprise' Program

For Webster PTA

A "surprise" program will highlight the March 20 unit meeting of the Daniel Webster PTA at 8 p. m. in the multi-purpose room of the Daniel Webster School.

Mrs. Earl W. Hall, vice president and program chairman, urges all parents and teachers not to miss this special program.

Election of next year's officers will take place during the business meeting. The fourth grades are the hostesses for the evening, and Mrs. D'Andrea, Mrs. Rogers and Mr. Notaro, the fourth grade teachers, will arrange the display table.

Gardener's Checklist

1. Try planting an avocado for shade and fruit. It makes an excellent evergreen shade tree even in areas where the fruit does not set well.
2. Another planting of ramunculus will extend the bloom of those planted last fall and winter.
3. Sprouted begonia tubers may be potted up. Make sure all danger of frost is past before you set them out in the open.
4. Try dwarf oranges and lemons in tubs on your patio or deck.
5. Set out bedding plants for late spring and early summer bloom.

Herbs Make A Garden For Gourmets

The world's happiest gardeners are probably those who grow their own vegetables and herbs. Certainly there are none who derive more lasting pleasure from their gardening, for added to the satisfaction of making something grow is the joy of cooking with fresh produce.

With only an apartment window box to garden in, you can sample some of this pleasure and with a plot 10 by 15 feet or better you can really indulge yourself. A local member of the California Association of Nurserymen will help you plan a vegetable garden and start you off on the right foot. Unless you know the local adaptability of various vegetables, a nurseryman's advice is essential.

Most of the favorite varieties of herbs are available in nurseries already started, or if you prefer, you can grow any of them from seed. A basic list of herbs should include basil, rosemary, thyme, oregano, marjoram and chives. They may be grown in the ground or in pots. The latter method makes them a possibility for would-be gardeners who live in city apartments and lack ground space.

For convenience, the herb gardener should be as close as possible to the kitchen, enabling you to take a pinch of this or that while cooking. Since most herbs take up little space, this presents no problem. They can be grown in pots, as noted above, and placed near the kitchen door. Or they can be planted as an edging to the back walk or a flower border.

Many vegetables should be planted now. Heat lovers such as tomatoes, egg plant and peppers, however, should not go in until weather warms up. April is usually the recommended month for planting these in all areas except the north coastal area where May is a better bet.

Hopland in Mendocino County was called Sanel until 1880 when a successful experiment at growing hops gave it the new name.

New Lawns

Newly seeded lawns should be kept constantly moist, but don't flood them and wash out ungerminated seed. In most lawn mixtures, some seed varieties are slow to germinate and remain in the soil for three weeks or even a month before sprouting. Watering too heavily will wash these seeds right out of the soil. Use a fine spray and use it thoroughly and frequently.

Chrysanthemums

Rooted chrysanthemum cuttings are available in C.A.N. nurseries for planting this month. Give them a sunny spot and prepare the soil two weeks in advance of planting by working steer manure in well. Keep them well watered and fed right through the summer.
